PRIVACY ACT NOTICE

The Privacy Act of 1974 (U.S.C. 552a) requires that certain information be given to you when you are requested to furnish personal information to a Government agency. The information is provided in this notice. The Act does not apply, however, to business information about your firm.

AUTHORITY FOR REQUESTING INFORMATION

As representatives of the Secretary, employees of the Meat Division are authorized to enforce provisions of the Federal Meat Inspection Act (21 U.S.C. 451 et seq.). Under these Acts, employees are authorized to gather information to determine the compliance of persons, firms and corporations with the Acts and related regulations.

PURPOSE FOR WHICH THE INFORMATION WILL BE USED

This information is requested to establish and record your identity and your knowledge of possible irregularities under the Acts and regulations.

ROUTINE USE, WHICH MAY BE MADE OF THE INFORMATION

In appropriate situations, a report containing the information you furnish may be referred to other Federal, State or local agencies charged with law enforcement or the investigation of prosecution of law violations.

EFFECTS OF FAILURE TO FURNISH INFORMATION

Failure to provide the requested personal information will subject you to no penalties or adverse consequences. Failure to furnish information and records about you business, however, may subject you to the penalties specified in the Meat and Poultry Inspection Acts.
